It can suit established authors, unpublished writers, print publishers looking for a digital publishing partner, website owners looking to re-package content, companies looking to capitalize on their expertise and anyone with an innovative idea.

How? Submit a sample and your details for a free assessment.

To begin with, please send us an outline, or sample, or chapter summary to plume@metaplume.com. Please also include the following details in your email:

1. First name
2. Last name
3. Email address
4. Website URL (if applicable)
5. Title of the book (if known)
6. Approximate number of pages or word count
7. Description of the book or idea

Depending on whether or not your work has already been published, we do understand that the amount of detail that you can supply, or would feel comfortable to supply, may vary. Provide us with what you can to start the process.

Then? Your proposal will be evaluated in-house. No details will be revealed to a third party. MetaPlume will get back to you within a week. We will review your sample for quality and for potential salability.

If your proposal is accepted, you will receive detailed instructions about how to submit the manuscript to MetaPlume for publication.

Questions? Please contact us at plume@metaplume.com if you have any questions or concerns.
